Deepa Patel has spent the last 15 years working as a music producer and workshop facilitator in music education, as a youth worker and counsellor for young people, and as a campaigner on issues of poverty, HIV/AIDS and cultural diversity. She is an experienced project manager, trainer and facilitator.

Deepa has worked with a wide range of organisations, which include the BBC, EDF Energy, Serious Music Producers, Portsmouth City Council, Common Purpose and the Arts Council.

Her main aim has been to foster creativity in herself and the people that she works with and to find creative and inspiring ways to give them a voice to express themselves and their needs. She is interested in the art of conversation and in developing imaginative ways for organisations and individuals to exchange and implement ideas, for positive change.
