

Eduardo Escobedo

Eduardo Escobedo he has been an Economic Affairs Officer at the Biodiversity and Climate Change Section of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) since January 2008. In this capacity, he is responsible for managing projects aimed as stimulating trade and investment in biological resources as a means of furthering sustainable development.

Prior to joining the United Nations, Eduardo headed the Latin America and Caribbean Programme at the International Centre for Trade and Sustainable Development and acted as Managing Editor of four major periodical publications in Spanish and Portuguese published by the Centre.

Eduardo has also work for the Mexican Government as a trade negotiator in Vienna, Brussels and Geneva, having been involved in the negotiation processes of the Free Trade Agreement between the European Union and Mexico signed in 2000, and the launch of the World Trade Organisation's Doha Round of Multilateral Trade Negotiations.